Dearest Friends Janine + Raza,

How wonderful it must have been for Krishen to have had that brief stay with you in Paris. It is so sad I could not have been with all of you at the same time. Someday before long I hope you will both be here in Delhi and we shall be able to enjoy long talks and paintings and outings to-gether. The tiny little painting you have sent is a world of delight and I do love drawing myself in that tremendous glow and brilliance. The whites and blacks are so wonderfully proportioned and placed. It is a joy to see such brilliance.

Krishen unrolled two large bunnies the night after he got back and we were all so thrilled to see the effect. He is now busy setting up his studio and unpacking all his things. It is a long job but at the rate he is going I expect he'll begin painting in a day or so.

Janine, it was so sweet of you to send me the lipstick case I do enjoy having it. The children are all so delighted to have their Daddy back that is is quite unbelievable. This afternoon Krishen is going to Patiala to attend the marriage of an American friend to a Sikh girl, and Karan wants to be smuggled in to the car as well. Remember me to Akbar & Solange. With fond love Yours Renu.
