

Paris, Dec. 6, 1961-

My dear Krishen -

I hope this short letter reaches you before your vernissage + brings you our warm greetings + wishes. I am sure there is going to be abundance of enthusiasm + admiration on the 13th Dec.

When you are less busy - let us know how you feel during the long day + days that follow without the obligation to go to the office + with the possibility of being with work as long as you like. Also let's know how is work + how it went on the vernissage.

Let me have your address - your plans. Akbar will be there even before my letter arrives + will give you all the news from here. In the meantime all our affectionate regards to you + Renu.

Rajiv Arora