

Dear Janine and Roger

for the love and
affection bestowed upon the memory of my dear Nena and for the many kindnesses done and
comforting words sent to me, my profound
thanks.

They have been a source of strength at a time of desperate
sadness.

Yes my dear friends it is impossible to believe that all that vitality and charm, that joie de vivre is no more. Thank you for saying that it is a loss in 'our' family. Nene always spoke about you and Jane as 'our children' with all the love of a relative.

The pain is still intense, the emptiness vast and the road ahead unimaginable and dark. Time may heal many things but her things are going to shape, I'm sure and around me, I don't know. The fire has gone out of the sun.

You know that she loved you both very much, was happy with you. I know that you more than many will miss her. Only last year she had such happy days with you and even then death lived within her and we did not know. I am grateful for your love which I feel
