My dear Janine,

This is just a quick note to say how much we have missed your visit to India this time. I know that there are hard, difficult times, and in India a time when we have to re-examine our own values and try to rebuild relationships.

Rara Sahib's visit, as always, has been very constructive. He knows the value of time, and in sure their few days in Delhi have been spent usefully. Among other things, I believe we are going to initiate the Indian chapter of Art Critics in association with AICA (Paris) - I am truly excited about this, and hope it will keep us in touch.

I truly want to make a visit to France, this summer. If it can be managed financially, I will come. But it is more important to manage matters so that my son Murad can study film and video in Paris. He is now ready and mature for this, and in the process of filling out forms. If you can help us find him an inexpensive place to stay, even for 2-3 months, as a P.G., that will help. Do think and let me know.

I hope you are well Janine, and busy with work. Enclosed is a small gift. Just the right thing for that paradise called Gorbio!
With love,
Geeti.
