Dear Bhaijan,

from the time I came back from leave every day I thought of writing to you but could not do so, but after I got the film developed which I took in Pakistan, it made me to write to you soon.

Bhaijan I ~~am~~ have no rights to interfere in your personal affairs but my heart does not allow me to keep quiet after seeing the pitiful condition of sister-in-law.

Bhaijan you have a right to do whatever you think correct but just look at this photo and see what have you made of her. I know she should be equally blamed for this, but still you are a man you can always forgive and forget. Her condition reminded me of Amma when Abbajan left her on the mercy of her brothers & sisters. The same condition is off of Bhabi please Bhaijan don't repeat it again. please do something for her. Improve her condition. Don't let her live in rage on the mercy ~~to~~ of her brothers. Taj (that's my wife's name if you don't know) offered her some dress which she refused take saying that you have bought better than these for her in Bombay, when you will come you will buy again.

The way she talks & the way she behaves looks as if she is going mad. Sometimes she ^{will} shriek & cry sometimes she will laugh. It's just like Ammajan. Bhaijan please don't do it. ~~the~~ ^{have} I know what all hardship you undergone due to her but this is too much of a punishment. Can you not write to her some loving letters? Can you not give her some hope to live on? Can't you write to her that you will send lot of money to buy nice dress & live happily? Why? why can't you write all this? Why are you forcing her to slow death? Is ^{one} martyr (Ammajan) is not enough for our family record? You don't know how Taj ~~stays~~ ^{stays} me everyday. saying you all are same type. ^{is} there ^{no} ^{hope} ^{of} ^{from} you all.

Just see what your father did?
just see what Hevder Bhaijan doing!
you may do the same.

Bhaijan please forgive me if I have hurt your feeling, but whatever I am writing is true.
you have¹⁶ think about it once again
please Bhaijan do reply my letter.

Do write to me what are you doing there? do you need any money
Please do reply.

Every day I will wait
for your reply

yours loving brother
Hasan
