My dear Raza,
Your letter is an
angelic gift - and your calligraphic expression
is a treat to eyes. it
makes me more humble
than a flower and
stronger than a mountain.
I am not exaggerating -
but it really takes me
away from my daily
worries.

I have no words to thank you for your affectionate action.

May such writing of yours hold me tight & with - forceful current in order to lead me to the shore
where lies beauty, love and truth in an
inseparable posture.

I always feel that
my soul belongs to such shores when I think of you.

* The photograph you
have sent at once
took me there where I experienced the warmth of your -
affection and depth
of your thoughts
hidden in your heart.
It's not only the print on a paper but an
image engraved on
my sinking mind
in thinking process.
It's a grip where one
who would love to remain for ever. I am fortunate to be one.

* 18th Feb. was our marriage anniversary & we were →

I am happy to tell you that I have been appointed as the keeper
of National Gallery
of Modern Art, Bombay
and I may take charge
of the same, any day,
as soon as I am -
relieved by State Govt.
I need your blessings and guidance which -
of course, I was getting
all the time.
Would you please send me some prospectus
or information about
museums and galleries
over there along with your valuable thoughts
I shall be highly grateful to you.

Hope, you are more at
peace and excellent
state of health since
you are at home and
once again engrossed
completely in your
domain of colours and
forms.

Tyotee remembers you.
We along with our son Pinaich, will be shifting to Malad very soon; so
in future, you would,
not only dine with us,
but rest comfortably in our small house which is full of love for you.
Convey my regards to
your wife and mother
in law.

Love
Prabhakar
Tyotee &
Pinaich.

with you, a divine co-incidence
