my dear Raza,

It is long time since I am entertaining the desire of writing to you. But I was waiting for the day when I could tell you more definitely of my whereabouts. In simpler words, I came home in January (as you know), but I was returning to Germany in September - (unless I could get something good enough here.). Thus there was no real feeling of stability. Hence I did not write to you.

Things have changed lately. you will be glad to know that I have joined the All India Institute of Medical Sciences (Govt. of India), as Associate Prof. of Biochemistry.

This Institute is going to be the biggest & best Institute of its kind in India (probably in Asia). The salaries are also slightly better than elsewhere in the country. I am getting a start of Rs 1100/-.

So now you are welcome to come to Delhi any time. My house (when it will be!), you can consider as yours. you have just to let me know the date of your arrival.

What became of your show in Venice? I hope you had success.

I was very glad to read in a local newspaper that you got the "Prix de la critique". My hearty congratulations.

What are you doing these days & what is your immediate programme? Is Madame back in Paris?

Give my greetings to all mutual friends.

Love regards,

very
Yours Sincerely

Ran.

P.S. Rajesh is in Delhi with his wife & baby. They are working in the
A.I.R. French Section.

P.S. Have you any ideas for the new year cards this year?
