Paris, 27th June 1966.

Respected Sir,

I am sorry my reply to your letter has been delayed but we have been away from Paris + took a long trip before coming back to Paris last week.

I am very glad to know that Mr. Justice N. L. Abhyankar is planning to visit Paris around 12th July. We will be in Paris during the whole month of July - except on week-ends + will very much like to meet him. I wonder if he has left Nagpur already - if he is still there, could you please give him our telephone number - Voltaire 39-77 so that it could be easy for him to join us. If I knew where he would be staying, I would gladly bring him up + fix up a convenient time to meet.

We had some worries concerning our health last winter. I had some trouble with my eyes - probably strain of work. My wife too was not keeping well + much to our disappointment we had to cancel our trip to India. We have had excellent medical advice - one of the best Ophthalmologist in Paris is treating me. The tension of my eye has come down to normal + there's no reason for worry.

If all goes well, we shall be in India in December this year.

In the meantime, I have two exhibitions to attend to. One in Dusseldorf in Germany in September & another in Paris in November. I have been working hard & hope to continue till end of October. I think I wrote to you that I have a big studio now in an old convent quite near our house & I am most pleased to have a quiet & convenient place to work.

The news of the School & Nagpur Museum have delighted us. I hope that our trip to India will materialise this time. We will keep you informed. In the mean time we send you all our respects as also to Mrs Athwale. Also please convey our fondest greetings to Vasant Rao Ji & our common friends.

Yours as ever -
