INTERNATIONAL MEETS DESI: The capital recently saw many art aficionados gather for an evening organised by an auction house. Yamini Mehta, Ganieve Grewal, Hugo K Weihe and Jonathan Stone from the auction house were the perfect hosts. Yamini was glad to be in India and said, "With Indian art making waves all over the world, this was a long overdue event - organised so that the desi and the international could come together."

MASTERPIECES ON DISPLAY: Works by Ganesh Pyne, SH Raza, Gigi Scaria, Souza and many other Indian artists were on display at the do and everyone was full of appreciation.

OF RAZA AND HIS GAIETY: Sabrina, who takes care of the SH Raza's works in the South of France, added, "It's been a pleasure working with a warm person like him. He is always so full of gratitude and gaiety."

ARTISTIC TALKS: Shakti Burman and Jatin Das shared some good moments in each other's company. Newly wed Roshni Vadehra's chooda added colour to her ensemble of a grey skirt and a black pullover. Also present was curator Priya Jain and Amol Vadehra.
