

Paris, 10th April, 1952.

My dear Bupali -

I should have much liked to meet you before you leave for London, but here with please find the address & telephone of my brother. The best will be to ring him up one evening about 8 P.M. His address is

S. A. IMAM,

45 LANCASTER GATE

L O N D O N W 2

(Room No 1 - top floor)

His office telephone is PAR - 56 - 62, extension 32 - but may be it will be preferable to join him at home between 8 + 10 pm.

Now that he has written to me, he will be in London the whole month of ~~May~~ April. ^{to say} But try to see him ~~at~~ as early as you possibly can. though now tickets

If you are free on Friday, come over for lunch. I should like you to bring the address ~~at~~ + details of the shop where you said one has 15% reduction. I still ~~at~~ aspire so much for a scooter + will like to have details.

And if I don't see you - Bon Voyage
+ bon séjour -
