My dear Pindi + Lucy -

We are with you both today - indeed happy in your happiness + send you all our affectionate greetings. We may + hope that life will offer you both the plenitude that you have longed for, which the miraculous "encounter" contained + will now spread through the years to come.

We are sure Pindi will present India to Lucy again in all its multicoloured aspects where yet so much remains to be discovered. But we also hope dearly that both of you will ultimately decide to settle down in France so that you are near the "sources", near to your mother, + nearer to us too.

Our fond love to you both -
