

World Famed Artist's Love For Alma Mater

NAGPUR, Wednesday

Mr. S. H. Raza, artist of international fame has given donation of Rs. 3000 to the building fund to the Nagpur School of Art. Mr. Raza spent his early days for the study of Art in this school and this donation shows his love and regard for the institution.

He prosecuted his further studies in Art in the famous academy at Paris. He was awarded the famous prize i.e. 'Prix de la critique' in Paris in 1956. He then had several individual and group shows in France, Germany, Italy, Canada and the USA.

He visited India in April, and had his exhibitions in Bombay and Delhi with great success.

Nagpur

Times

9.5.68.