Paris, le 22 Avril 1966.

Mon cher Rudi-

Merci de ta bonne lettre en excellent Français.

Bien sûr, nous serions à Orly le Samedi 14 mai, à 08h50 pour le recevoir. We have now our new car + it will be good to drive you through Paris to the residence of Mrs Delmarle in Becon Courbevoie. I haven't yet rang her up as we have a plan to go to south of France next week for a short trip, + I wanted to be sure about it. If we do go - which I hope we will, we will be away from 28th April + will return back on 12th May - just in time to meet you on 14th at the Orly airport at 8-50 A.M. Also we will keep Sunday free to be able to take you to Ernst Van Leyden + to Orly again at 16h30.

It will be grand seeing you again. We will ring up Mrs Delmarle early next week + will try to contact Ernst also if he has come back. Would you talk lunch with us on Saturday + then go to Mrs Delmarle. This, as may be most suitable to you + to her. It will be nice to fix up a programme so that your two days séjour in Paris is agréable.

This is a short letter - written in haste, but I want to send it over to you without delay. I will write to you again either from here or from Gorbio. I am also giving you my address there so that you could write to us if it is necessary.

(between 1st + 11th May)

We are anxiously looking forward to the pleasure of meeting you.

Our fondest love
