PARIS, 28th December 1989 -

My dear Krishen,

I wrote often, but letters were incomplete, or not posted. Am with work - which is incredibly slow.

I was sorry to awake you that night, but I needed to talk to you. There's so much happiness both in Europe & at home, in India. Besides, with my trip to India, I wanted to be sure, I could get a room in the India Int. Centre. Hope you have fixed it - I plan to be in Delhi from Sunday 28th Jan. till Sunday 4th Feb. The over all trip to India - one month, reaching Bombay on 13th Jan & leaving back for Paris on 13th Feb. An exhibition of small canvases at Chemould starting 24th Jan.

Krishen, I am so happy that Gai has the Kalidas award. It's so timely. How I wish I could attend on the 13th, this wonderful moment. But flights are heavily booked & any change seems difficult. I will be present in mind & heart. I am sure it will do good to old Gai, also it is good for Bharat Bhawan.

Janice is not coming this time. She hasn't even attended her individual show in Norway. But we will make up to the loss next year - i.e. 1991 when we come for 6 weeks again.

Please check up my reservation with Mr. Gupta. While in Bombay I will stay with Bal. Hope this finds you & Penny in excellent form.

In haste, but with fond love - and all good wishes for 1991 -
