

Yuktaa Mookhey greets S H Raza as Tarana Khubchandani looks on

WORDS OF WISDOM

Special guest for the afternoon — the legendary S H Raza was seen having a quiet, lengthy conversation with Yuktaa Mookhey. Giving her some words of wisdom?

What was Raza telling Yuktaa?

Indian women are among the most affected with breast cancer from all over the world. This stark reality was put forth at this charity art show-cum- champagne brunch in support of breast cancer awareness on Sunday. Taking up the cause was Tarana Khubchandani of Gallery Art and Soul, who decided to merge two things close to her heart — art and breast cancer awareness — together.

Enjoying the vast collection of Indian art works collected over many decades was Samir Mondal. This fun-filled Sunday afternoon hosted by Natasha Suri also saw some song and dance performances that kept Dolly Thakore enthralled.

Rahul Dev seemed a little lost in thought... wonder if it was the art that confounded him?!

JOURNEY 2 - CHARITY ART SHOW..

Sunday, February 5, Leela Kempinski

- TARAN Khoobchandani of Gallery Art and Soul was one of the leading organisers of this event. Last year the gallery saw its first charity show 'Journey 1' that raised money through art to support cancer patients.
- ALTHOUGH the do did not have many known faces of the art fraternity, the master SH Raza himself made an appearance and mingled with the guests effortlessly.
- MODEL-turned-actor Yukta Mookhey kept it simple with a white shirt and blue denims and a gold belt to add just the right amount of bling to her starry look.
- ACTOR Rahul Dev showed a lot of interest in the art on display. He then chatted away with everyone at the party. He also posed happily for the shutter-bugs.
- MISS India runner up Natasha Suri too made her presence felt at this do sparkling in a red sari. She went up to Rahul as soon as she spotted him and both shared a long conversation.
