My dear Raza,

I'm in the throes of work, stretching & framing. It is a huge job & very exacting. However the paintings are looking smashing! Egan is wildly excited about them. Let's hope the others are too. It remains to be seen & you'll hear in due course. — You must not think me ill-mannered for not writing to thank you & Janine for the warmth of your friendship and hospitality. I assure you that it is not taken for granted & I value it deeply each time I come. Thank you both for treating me as one of your household. It is a privilege I am conscious of always.

A great friend of ours (she stayed for 7 or 8 months with us in India) is going to be visiting Paris soon & I've asked her to call you. Do see her if you are not desperately busy. Her father is James Laughlin, the owner & publisher of NEW DIRECTIONS Books. Her name is Leile Laughlin. Very pretty girl!

Please tell Akhar about her too. I've asked her to go & see him & I'm also scribbling off a brief note to him.

I'm also dropping Paul Jenkins a note ~~to~~ at his address: - 15 Rue Decres and am asking him to contact you.

Gallery for Janine. I imagine he is at present busy with his show. So write - sometime. I'm really up to my neck in work. Pai is here & it's great having him - we have breakfast together!
My fond love to you both - As ever,
Krishna
