Dear Raza and dear Janine -
B. 15 - BASILIQUE DE VÉZELAY
Croix gravée

Finally, this little sojourn in Paris is over, but with each visit, this city holds out more magic and is more alluring! Someday perhaps, we can stay longer... This time it was an experience to visit the churches at Vézelay, and Antun - that quality of austerity which you perhaps like.

At the end, it helped me to know that the rewritten text was appreciated, and struck a chord. It is intended to be grand, sombre, like Bach's organ music. And I feel sure Raza Sahib, that we can try to make this book something special - which people will not easily forget - The images, the words will linger -

I appreciate your attention to all details in every fragment and moment of life - It inspires one to attempt the same! One small cheque will have arrived for me - from London ($250) - Please could you give it to Bernard Kohn - I awaited 2 1/2 years! Thank you - with my affection.
