my dear vaza sahib,

I am dreadfully sorry for not having written to you at Ashoka in Bhopal or ~~in~~ at Bombay. I had sent a message with Manjit Bawa who was also participating in the East West Seminar at Bombay. I do hope that he did convey my message. It is a pity that you were unable to come to Delhi on your visit to India, I was looking forward to meeting with you.

The 3 transparencies that we have kept back for so long are back from the plate maker and are now with the printer for proofing. I'm afraid there are so many unexpected slips between the cup and the lip that I hesitate to make any firm commitments any longer! But the printer assures me - if he can be believed at all - that he will return me the slides by the end of Holi vacations (i.e. 6-7th of March) and if I despatch them to you before the end of the week you should expect them by registered Air Mail in the week starting on 11 March. I do hope you will bear with me for a little longer with the same patience that you have shown till now. I am really helpless and at the mercy of the most ingenious and tricky post masters at the procrastination game!

I'm glad you have liked the production of the books.
Did you buy them in Bhopal? I'm sure you couldn't have bought them in Bombay!

with regards,

Tani S. Bhargava
