My dear Krishna -

Your letter + cheque arrived this morning. Thanks a lot. By strange coincidence the signature of the act had to be done this morning. So we had raised the money + we signed the papers at the notary today + am really very happy it has been possible. I am holding up the cheque till you come so that we are perfectly fixed up regarding repayment. I think it will be better so + after all you are going to be here in a few days.

I have just come out from Akbar's house after giving him ~~you~~ news of your arrival on Saturday. We intend to be at Orly air-port around 12-45 when Air India's plane arrives. I will cheque up on Friday + if there are vital changes - strikes are very common here at present - we shall content ourselves with coming to Invalids. So look around at Orly + if we are not there, take the bus to Invalid. I think we ~~intend to come to Orly~~ ^{will be at Orly} ~~to make an exception,~~ ^{exceptionally} as we are really very anxious to meet you again. If my ~~at~~ bad luck this special attention would mean that ~~Akbar may be going to India this summer~~ we miss you, come home directly - we will leave the keys with Mrs Frichet 4th floor ~~at~~ our next door neighbour. ~~So have~~ by way of extreme caution. Akbar will also con

~~we~~ We will have much to say & much to hear. ~~Rest till then.~~ ~~Who~~ so bill then our fond ~~and~~ greetings & love. If there's change of programme please ~~write~~ write or cable.

Love & all our fondest
Greetings.
