

My dear Padamsi,

This is Krishna Paigankar. He will be in Paris for a fortnight. Arrange a room for him at the Hotel. Please help him to enjoy his holiday. Take him to the Fountain of Innocents!

Please get the two bottles of wine and the small cognac bottles when you come to London.

With love,

yours,

Newton.

My dear Raza,

This is Krishna Paiganker. Call him "Krishna". He is my friend, & so he must be yours. It its' not trouble, show him Paris.

Please don't forget the Eau-de-Cologne bottle for Maria. (Not a superior quality — its only for ordinary use, and buy only the cheapest one).

You may give the 4,000 francs to Krishna if he gets short of money for his holiday.

With love + all the best,

Yours
Newton
