Dear RAZA,

I had been thinking of writing to you since my return from Bombay but writing a letter seemed to me such a poor substitute to what I wanted to express so that I did not feel like utilising this method of communication.

I was very happy that I could spend 2 or 3 evenings with you and Janine when I was in Bombay, otherwise you meet once and then part without exchanging much.

I was extremely glad to have seen some of your recent paintings which is quite an experience. You must have done some more. Have you decided not bringing the show to Delhi? I am sure, Bombay would react very encouragingly to the show.

When are you planning to come to Delhi?
Do drop a line.

If possible please send me a copy of your catalogue.

Tyeb gave me all your news.

Regards and love to both of you.

Yours —

Ram
