The most beautiful 'Art' is Nature,
All creation stems from the source.
Dancers rejoice in its abundance.
Poets reveal its hidden secrets.
Painters realize its spirit.

We are so lucky to get a peek into this process; to feel the palpable excitement of being witness to a constant metamorphosis, - the headrush of getting into someone's headspace.

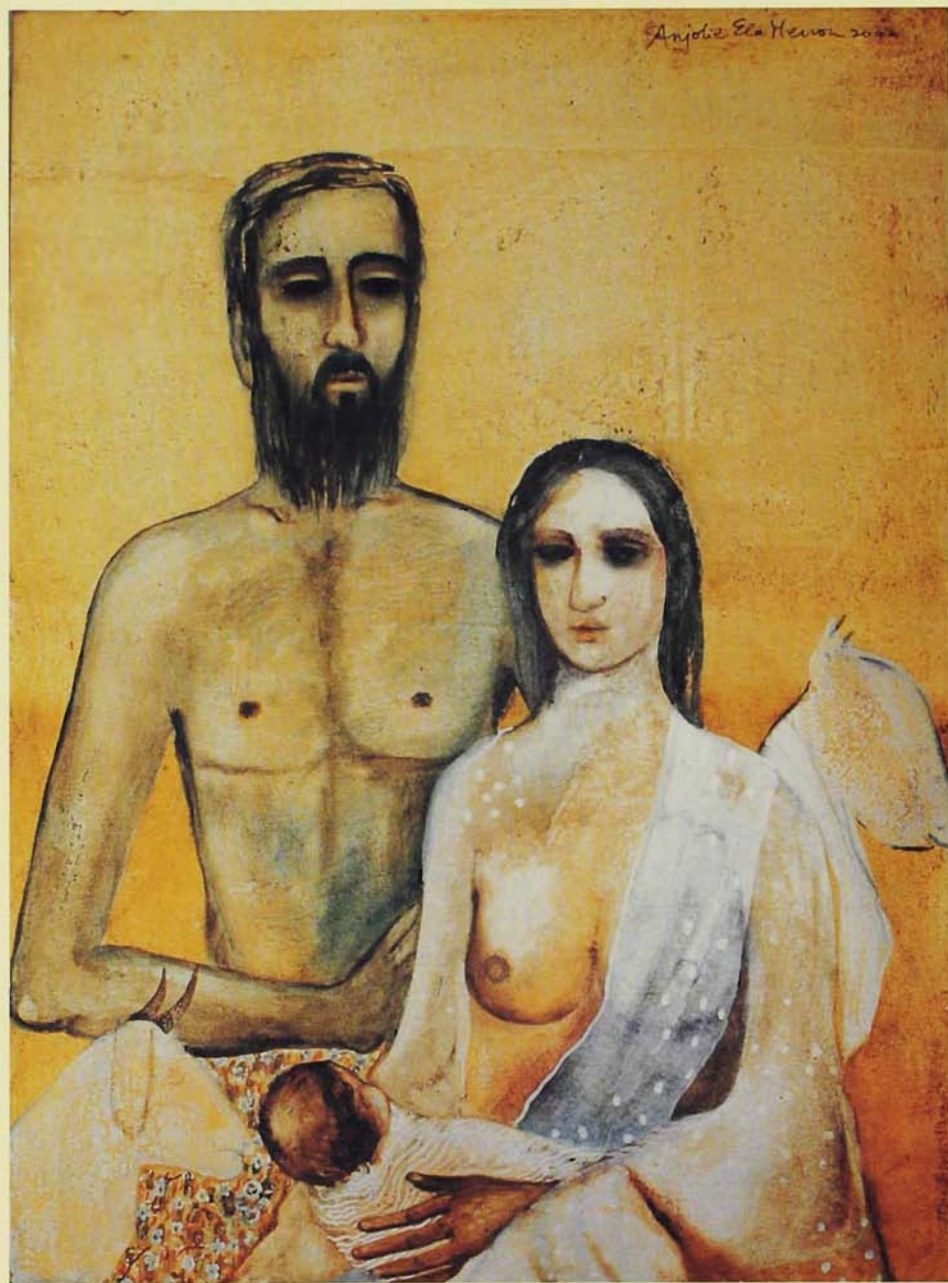

When they paint, the artists let us into a very private place - their soul. What we see is not only their work, but a part of their being, their world, their essence.

Witness the evocative imagery of an Anjolie,
the ever questioning Atul,
the surreal depths of a Baiju, Husain's brazen bold passion.
The fluid lines of Jogen, Laxman's clarity in abstract,
the ebullience of a Paresh.
The indefinable Ram Kumar,
the soul searching vortex of a Raza,
the constant celebration of Sakti.

Step into a glimpse of their world... and share with them a moment in infinity.
