

Contents

March 14 – 27 2014
Next issue out on
March 28 2014

Paris mon amour Christian Constant's popular bistro Les Cocottes; see p36

Cover story

Travel bugs

Living with bedouins, wading through rainforests, catching a glimpse of dragons, burning witches, downing pints of the finest beer and grabbing a tasty bite, getting arty or even witnessing a bloody miracle – whether you're looking to stuff your face or shop till you drop, you have the entire year ahead to sample the getaways we've laid out for you. You can take a train, plane, boat, bike, balloon or simply hang from the end of a very long rope. Bon voyage! Page 25

Features

18 Omair Ahmad

The author tells us why he cancelled his contract with Penguin India.

20 deadmau5

The rodent-headed Canadian electronica producer will make you dance till you drop.

22 Nirbhaya

An award-winning play on violence against women by South African playwright and director Yael Farber.

Regulars

10 Fortnightly agenda

12 Inbox

14 Dilli Gate

92 After words

Lifestyle

45 Cool desk accessories Sales & launches

Food & Drink

53 The best pork ribs and belly in the city Reviews Chew – Pan Asian Café, The Beer Café Appetisers Time Out Food Awards nominees Hot tables Clubs, bars & lounges

Around Town

67 Transport Heritage Museum

Around Town, Kids and Gay & Lesbian events

Art & Culture

70 SH Raza on Gandhiji

Sonia Khurana
The Body in Indian Art
Maram al-Masri
Book reviews Every Day, The Mouse Merchant – Money in Ancient India, One Part Woman, The Simpsons and their Mathematical Secrets
Art, Books, Dance and Theatre listings

Film

81 Nupur Asthana

Reviews August: Osage County, Gulaab Gang, Lee Daniels' The Butler, Mahanagar, Queen, Total Siyappa
DVD reviews Captain Phillips, Pacific Rim
Other screenings

Music & Nightlife

89 Swarathma Tarun Balani Collective Concerts

Quote of the fortnight

"Penguin needs to reverse or change this decision, otherwise it will have damaged its own reputation far more than any court case."

See page 18

ON THE COVER

Cover illustration Pramod Jadhav